TITLE: ATC Cancellation & Refund Policy		APPROVED BY: Directors

1. Cancellation & Refund Policy

Triton Training aims to provide an efficient and effective service to all along with a fair and reasonable policy with regards to cancellation and refunds. The aim of this policy is to provide a clear and structured process which highlights who can cancel, how they can cancel and what Triton Training will do to refund course fees. Therefore Triton Training aims to ensure that:

- Cancelling a course is as easy as possible.
- Communication is timely and clear.
- The right response is provided, such as confirmation of cancellation and refund, where possible an alternative resolution if cancellation and refund are not possible.

2. Practical Courses Terms & Conditions

By completing and sending an enrolment form for a course and making a payment in full or instalment fee, a learner is agreeing to the following Terms and Conditions:

A learner has the right to cancel a practical course booking at the following terms:

- Within the 14-calendar day cooling off period from the date on which the contract of purchase is concluded (receipt of paid course fees). If a learner chooses to cancel within this period, they will receive a full refund within 30 days.
- After the 14-calendar day cooling off period from the date on which the contract of purchase is concluded (receipt of paid course fees). An admin fee of 25% of the total course price applies (which will not be refunded), any remaining deposit will be refunded.
- A learner must request any practical course cancellation 30 working days before the course start date.
- A learner is not eligible for any refund if a request for cancellation is received less than 30 working days before the course starting date.

3. Online Courses (Distance Learning) Terms & Conditions

Under this refund policy and under guidance of the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013, a learner may cancel a purchase of an online course at the following terms:

- Within the period of 14-calendar day (cancellation period) from the date on which the contract of purchase is concluded (receipt of paid course fees). If a learner chooses to cancel within this period, they will receive a full refund within 30 days.
- A learner is not eligible for any refund if a request for cancellation is received less than 14 working days before the course starting date.

4. After the start date of a course (practical or online)

- Once a learner attends any portion of any course, Triton Training cannot grant a refund. All refund requests can be sent to info@tritontraining.co.uk if a learner feels that they have exceptional circumstances.
- Please note that a refund request is a request only and will not guarantee a refund or partial refund.
- The learner enrolled may be required to provide proof of change in circumstance or additional evidence to support their request.

5. Learner postponing or transferring a course

- If a learner wishes to postpone or transfer a course, all postponement or transfer requests can be sent to info@tritontraining.co.uk for review by the Triton Training Quality Manager no less than 30 working days before the course starting date.
- A learner is not able to make a request for course postpone less than 30 working days before the course start date.

6. Course Provider Cancelling a course

- Triton Training reserves the right to cancel a course if number of learners have not reached the minimum required to run the course effectively. This decision will be made and learners notified no less than 14-calendar days before the start date of the course.
- Triton Training also reserves the right to cancel in the event of an unforeseen circumstance which disables a safe training environment. In the event of a cancellation, Triton Training will either arrange for an alternative course date or offer a full refund of the course fees paid.

7. Refund Procedure

- All refunds will take up to 30 days to process.
- Once a learner attends any portion of any course, Triton Training cannot grant a refund. All refund requests can be sent to info@tritontraining.co.uk for review by the Triton Training Quality Manager if a learner feels that they have exceptional circumstances preventing them from attending their course. Please note that a refund request is a request only and will not guarantee a refund. The learner enrolled may be required to provide proof of change in circumstance or additional evidence to support their request.

Formal refund process

Stage 1

Formal refunds are submitted in writing and marked for the attention of Triton Training Quality Manager who will assume responsibility for the initial investigation at Info@tritontraining.co.uk adhering to the timing detailed in sections 1-7 of this policy.

When submitting a refund request, the learner must provide the following:

- Name, address and contact information.
- Full details of the refund such as the course name, venue, dates and invoice number.
- All supporting information such as relevant documentation.
- Details of any previous attempts to obtain a refund.
- What action has been taken to resolve so far.

Triton Training Quality manager will acknowledge the refund in writing within 10 working days of receipt, record details on the refund register and begin the refund investigation. A response, inclusive of explanation and resolution, will be provided where possible within 20 working days of initial request acknowledgement. To ensure a fair decision is made, the duration for the refund will depend on the particulars of the request received and Triton Training will notify the learner as soon as possible if the investigation will take longer than expected. At this point it is hoped the refund request will have been resolved however, if not then stage 2 of the formal process will begin.

Stage 2

The learner must notify Triton Training if they want to move to stage 2 of this process within 10 working days of Triton Training confirming the decision of stage 1.

- The Triton Training Quality manager will inform the Triton Training Directors to review the refund request for further investigation.
- Acknowledgement of further investigation will be provided to the learner in writing within 5 working days of receipt of the stage 2 complaint.
- The learner will also be notified of the individual responsible for the investigation.
- The Triton Training Directors will conduct a further investigation into the particulars of the request. Upon cessation of investigations, the Triton Training Directors will communicate directly with the learner and provide a final resolution. This will be communicated to the learner within 20 working days of receipt of the stage 2 refund request. Following the Director's final decision, the refund request is closed.

8. Vexatious and Persistent Correspondence

- Triton Training offer a transparent cancellation and refund procedure and will keep learners informed throughout any investigation or request. However, learners must allow sufficient time to carry out a thorough investigation or request review.
- Triton Training will not engage with abusive or persistent correspondence from complainants, once a decision has been reached.
- Repeated contact with no new evidence and /or abusive correspondence from a learner will be considered as vexatious correspondence.
- Where correspondence and /or behaviour are deemed to be vexatious, Triton Training will refer the learner to this policy, explaining that if the communication continues in this manner all correspondence will cease.
